SAD44 budget hits roadblock

Voters nix taxes to fund services state considers 'non-essential'

By MICHAEL DANIELS

SAD44 voters Tuesday approved a SAD44 budget of $9.9 million, but they rejected a question calling for local taxpayers to contribute $2 million of that figure in order to fund programs and services beyond what the state considers "essential."

Without the $2 million in local taxes, approval for the overall $9.9 million figure "really doesn't mean anything," Superintendent David Murphy said Wednesday. "You can't spend money you haven't allocated."

Five of the six questions on Tuesday's school budget referendum were approved, but the question calling for the additional local funds fell well short (472-614) of approval (full results, page 4).

All five SAD44 towns rejected the question. (A tie vote in Newry, 30-30, counts as a defeat.)

According to the wording of the referendum warrant, the local funds allocated by the defeated article "are needed to provide smaller class sizes than are recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model, to provide greater academic support in the form of educational technicians in District classrooms than is recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model, to pay for co-curricular costs not recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model, and to pay for transportation costs not recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model."

These Rebels are getting it done

Telstar Class of 2006 graduate Tiffany Jordan gives the thumbs up to her family Friday after receiving her diploma. Life got even better for Jordan Tuesday evening, when she scored the only run of the game as the Rebel softball team won the Western Class C Championship. Below, Telstar softball players celebrate with their plaque at St. Joseph's College. The 17-0 Rebels beat previously undefeated Sacopee Valley, 1-0, as pitcher Jessie Farrington tossed a no-hitter. Telstar will face Central High School Saturday at 11 a.m. for the state championship, at St. Joseph's. More, page 20.

Everett, Faulkner, Wainwright prevail in local balloting

By MICHAEL DANIELS

In Bethel balloting Tuesday, Robert Everett easily won the open seat on the Bethel Board of Selectmen, defeating Francis Dumont 366 to 216.

This will be Everett's second term on the board. He was elected in 2000 but was defeated in a 2003 re-election bid.

In the race for the Republican nomination in Maine House District 91, Harry Faulkner of Bethel prevailed easily over fellow townsman Mark Egeberg and Nancy Bessey of Dallas Plantation.

Faulkner will next face Democrat Tim Carter, who was uncontested in his bid for a spot on the November ticket.

The two Bethel men will be seeking the seat currently held by Republican Arlan Jodrey, also of Bethel, who was prohibited by term limits from running again.

Bethel Police Chief Alan Carr was defeated in his bid for the Republican nomination for Oxford County Sheriff (see related story).

Deputy Sheriff Christopher Wainwright of Canton prevailed, by an overall margin of more than 2 to 1.

Carr, however, was the favorite of voters in Bethel (157-149), Newry (26-9), and in his hometown of Albany (40-7).

Wainwright will face Democrat Wayne Gallant of Rumford in November.

Only three statewide primaries were contested Tuesday.

Bethel chief gets graduate education in degree scam

By MICHAEL DANIEL

Thirty credits in the usual undergraduate curriculum: English, math, physics, psychology, some electives — at almost any college or university that adds up to a solid freshman year.

But at online Alameda University, if you also throw in some "life experience credits" and a check for $500, you qualify for a master's degree, an accomplishment that normally requires a minimum of 150 undergraduate and graduate credits and thousands of dollars in tuitions.

Sound too good to be true? Ask Bethel Police Chief Alan Carr.

"I was scammed," Carr said. "Here I am in law enforcement, and I just got duped."

Alameda University, it turns out, is a classic "degree mill"

— a sham university awarding worthless degrees, for a price.

The chief was tipped off to his problem by an article in the June 4 edition of the Sun-Journal/Sunday.

The front page exposé, by staff writer Kelly Morgan, carried the headline "Degree-for-a-fee travesty."

It described the ease with which almost anyone, whatever their level of academic effort and/or accomplishment, could obtain advanced college degrees — as long as they were willing to pay a price.

Morgan's article listed a handful of examples of such mills, including Alameda University.

For Carr, who read the arti-

Telstar's Class of 2006 is launched

By ALISON ALOISIO

In the first indoor graduation ceremony at Telstar Regional High School in six years, 70 members of the Class of 2006 Friday received their diplomas and said farewell.

Rain forced graduates, family and friends into the school's gymnasium for the 7 p.m. commencement.

After the seniors marched in to "Pomp and Circumstance," Principal Shawn Lambert opened the ceremony. Class members Mia Stucchi and Kimberly Lauro led the singing of the National Anthem, and class adviser Sarah Southam welcomed those gathered.

Third honors student Chea Davis then spoke, describing a recent family visit to a Chinese restaurant. Comparing the variety in the restaurant's buffet food to her classmates, she painted a picture of the many different personalities.

The crab rangoon, for example, represented a classmate who has both "a hard and a soft side," she said.

Salutatorian Mallory Brown said the years following the classmates' graduation will be some of the most important in their lives, holding both "obstacles and opportunities. It will be a chance to discover who we really are."

She urged classmates to be flexible in dealing with problems they encounter.

On its final play, Newry mom's club pushes Rebel grid drive across the goal line

By ALISON ALOISIO

With a $6,200 donation received last week from the Newry Mothers' Club, the Telstar Football Boosters reached its fund-raising goal of $70,000.

The money is intended to provide startup costs to bring football back to the school.

The Mothers Club, disbanding after nearly 50 years (see sidebar), voted last month to give the money to the boosters.

"We just wanted it to go for the kids," said Nancy Wight. "We figured it would help bring back more school spirit."

Telstar had a football team until the mid-1980s, but the program was dropped as the number of players dwindled.

In late 2004, with an 11-2 vote, the SAD44 School Board gave its blessing to the group's plan to raise funds privately to re-establish football. Directors said to ask taxpayers to fund the program in the school budget would be too much.

For the project to go forward, the boosters needed to raise at least $45,000 in cash and the rest in pledges. The deadline is the end

DEGREE BROOHAHA

To the Editor:
The broohaha over Alan Carr and his bogus degree misses the central point.
In the couple of years he has been chief of police here in Bethel, I have had perhaps a half dozen formal encounters with him. In each case, I have been impressed with his knowledge of policing, his dedication to the town, his ability to listen carefully and respond intelligently, and his open, fair-minded and broad-based application of law enforcement principles. His integrity and moral stature came shining through.
Alan Carr gets my vote to be sheriff.

MASON WOODLOT ACQUISITION

To the Editor:
A group of 16 concerned citizens met June 7 to discuss the possible acquisition of a 664-acre Mason Township woodlot recently offered for sale by Lloyds Lands. The hope is that this parcel of land can be acquired from the seller and held in trust until federal funds can be made available to purchase it as an addition to the White Mountains National Forest.
The meeting was arranged by Mason resident Serena Williams who has circulated a support letter among Mason residents encouraging legislators to support the acquisition of the property by the National Forest Service. Williams states the support letter was signed by at least one individual of every residence in Mason except one (all but two residents of voting age). The support letter was then forwarded to members of the Maine Congressional delegation, where it has been favorably received.
Members attending included permanent residents, absentee landowners, other concerned area residents, U.S. Forest Service representatives and members of three nonprofit conservation organizations: The Northern Forest Alliance, the Trust for Public Lands (TPL) and the Mahoosuc Land Trust.
Roger Krussman of the TPL stated his organization considers the parcel a high priority for several reasons, primarily due to its value for land and watershed preservation. Ian Burnes of the Northern Forest Alliance also voiced the support of his organization for this project. He is encouraged by the tremendous support Mason Township residents have demonstrated. Katie Stuart of the U.S. Forest Service, working out of Gorham, N.H., then described the advantages of ownership to that organization. First, since the property is bounded on three sides by existing national forest land, its acquisition would actually shorten the national forest boundary. It would also secure access to the other national forest land in the area. This land acquisition effort would also be the only national forest acquisition project in the entire state of Maine. She pointed out New Hampshire Senator Judd Gregg heads a Congressional committee on natural resources and has managed to obtain federal funds appropriated for the future acquisition of additional national forest land in New Hampshire. These funds are available for purchase of New Hampshire land as it may come available, but not for purchase in other states. It would be nice if a similar situation could be created by the Maine congressional delegation.
From this point, discussions proceeded among the various members there about the potential value of the land in question and enthusiasm about preserving it for future generations. I came away surprised that the prospects of acquiring this land for eventual public ownership look promising.

MOLLYOCKETT DAY CAR SHOW

To the Editor:
Once again the greater Bethel Community will have the opportunity to come to the Telstar campus on Mollyockett Day, July 15, to support our local high school. Count on being amazed by people from all over Maine, New Hampshire and beyond enter their car, truck, tractor, street rod or motorcycle into the 6th annual car show. As a spectator you will be given the chance to vote on your favorite entry from the 21 classes for the Peoples' Choice Award.
If you are a business or individual, consider becoming a trophy sponsor. Your tax-deductible donation will sponsor a car show class. College scholarships, Class of 2007 and the boys' Telstar baseball team will all benefit from the proceeds from this fundraising event.
On Mollyockett Day there will be a free shuttle service provided by Sunday River Ski Corporation from the Chapman Inn to the Telstar campus. Make it part of your Mollyockett Day plans to attend the sixth annual car show. Show hours are from a.m. to 2 p.m. See you on the fields at Telstar.

WELCOME TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD

To the Editor:
This letter is in response to other letters and articles concerning the Schiavi Model Home Display located on the Mayville Road in Bethel. We are the owners of one adjoining properties. Our thoughts as well as our parents are simply this: It reminds us of the song "You Should See Me Now." We cannot express it any better than how Mr. Stone explained his vision in his recent letter to the editor. These quality homes are not like the manufactured homes of yesteryear.
As the project nears completion for their open house today, June 15, we think it will be a very attractive addition to the neighborhood. The homes are beautiful, Mr. And Mrs. Stone are very aware of community concerns and the landscaping is looking great. We would like to welcome them to Bethel and wish them the very best in their new business endeavor.

TALENT LURKS AT TELSTAR

To the Editor:
A few weeks back I had the pleasure of seeing Telstar High School's production of the musical "Wagon Wheels West." I never would have guessed the talent that lurks in the halls of our school. The students gave a spirited and honed performance with incredible comedic timing. Last week I enjoyed the Middle School's Fine Arts Night. The art show featured student art ranging from primitive masks to a complex dark statement on war. The concert performance of the band and chorus was spectacular. I was impressed with the number of students involved. When both groups took the stage bolstered by an electric guitar combo, they brought down the house. If that was not enough, the second half of the concert featured small group ensembles ranging from soloists to a break dancing troupe and a tie-dye fashion show. Even a faculty band belted out a number.
It is great to see the arts so alive in the schools. Aside from the delightful nights of entertainment provided, art and music is such a crucial part of a well-rounded education. My thanks and praise go out to all the students who worked so hard on these performances, also, thanks to Mr. Rose, Mr. Coolidge, and Mrs. Prescott and all the other faculty who devoted their time and talent to creating some significant performances. Also, to the administration for creating an environment that supports these endeavors.

In the two-way race for the right to take on two-term incumbent Senator Olympia Snowe, Democrats Jean Hay Bright of Dixmont and Eric Mehnert of Orono ran close statewide, with Hay Bright appearing to have the edge as of Wednesday afternoon.
Hay Bright also ran ahead locally, especially in Bethel (95-65) and Andover (17-7).
In the three-way Republican gubernatorial primary, Chandler Woodcock of Farmington came out on top statewide, defeating Peter Mills of Cornville, who garnered the second highest vote total, and David Emery of St. George, who came in a distant third.
In Bethel, however, Mills was the favorite, besting Woodcock and Emery 126-94-79.
On the Democratic side, incumbent Governor John Baldacci easily prevailed over challenger Christopher Miller of Gray.

Degree

cle the following Tuesday, this was not happy news. In 2003 Almeda University had awarded him a master's degree in law enforcement.
Carr did have legitimate academic experience, including earned credits from courses at Southern Maine Technical College, the Maine Criminal Justice Academy and Liberty Home Bible Institute.
The chief, who is 58, also has more than 30 years of experience in law enforcement, including 25 years with the Maine State Police.
Costly lesson in the ludicrous
Carr said he first learned of Almeda's "life experience degree programs" from an acquaintance.
He said he was impressed by Almeda's approach of combining academics and real-world experience.
After talking by phone with an Almeda representative, Carr submitted a packet containing his transcripts and a summary of his relevant "life experiences."
But in hindsight, he told The Citizen Monday, it was clearly not his academics nor his experience that earned him his "master's" — it was the check for $500.
"If I'd stopped and thought about it, I would never have paid that kind of money," Carr said. "It's ludicrous."
And, as matters turned out, Carr's bogus degree cost him far more than money — his hard-earned professional credibility also took a major hit.
At the time he learned that his degree was a sham, Carr was running for the Republican nomination for Oxford County Sheriff.
He said he immediately pulled the reference to the degree from ads he was running on a local radio station.
(Note: The degree was also mentioned in a letter to the editor from Carr that was due to run in The Citizen on Thursday, June 8. That letter, with the reference to the master's degree, did run. Asked Monday why he had not asked to have the reference dropped prior to the letter's publication, Carr replied that he thought he had, but there had apparently been some miscommunication.)
On Friday, June 9, five days after the first Sun-Journal story, matters got still worse — Carr's bogus degree was the subject of a top-of-the-front-page follow-up story in that newspaper.
On Primary Day, June 13, Carr lost his bid for the Republican nomination to Deputy Sheriff Christopher Wainwright.
Job appears secure
The primary campaign was not the only place the reference to a master's degree turned up.

In 2003 Carr was appointed interim police chief for Bethel; the following year he applied for the position on a permanent basis.
The resume included with his 2003 job application made no reference to the master's degree, but the 2004 resume did (the name of the university was not noted).
Town Manager Scott Cole said he discussed the degree only in passing during the interview process.
Cole said he had been more interested in Carr's experience, and his reputation in the law-enforcement community.
As far as the reference on the resume to a master's degree is concerned, Cole said, he is convinced Carr thought at the time it was legitimate.
The whole affair is under review, Cole said, but it does not appear likely it will affect Carr's position here.
"The chief is not a sophisticated man," Cole said, "but he's rock solid."
(Many legitimate institutions of higher education offer some form of "life-experience" credit, but the number of credits that can be earned in that manner is generally limited. Comprehensive information on degree- or diploma-mill scams can be found at: www.maine.gov/education/highered/diplomalist.htm.)

From the Bethel Police Log:

Monday, June 12
At 10:45 p.m. Officer Mac McCormick assisted a state trooper in looking for a subject driving a vehicle. There was no contact.
Sunday, June 11
At 9:15 a.m. on Paradise Road Lt. S.R. White assisted a subject in gaining entry into her locked house.
At 10:05 a.m. on the North Road Lt. S.R. White assisted Bethel Rescue with a medical call.
At 4:40 p.m. Officer T.J. Reese responded to Vernon Street for a 911 hangup call. The residents did not know who had called, and nothing seemed out of place.
At 9 p.m. Officer T.J. Reese took a report of phone harassment. A subject was warned.
At 10:30 p.m. a caller reported that a subject was on probation and was not to live with another felon. Officer T.J. Reese contacted the subject's probation officer and learned there was no such prohibition.
Saturday, June 10
At 12:10 a.m. on the West Bethel Road Officer T.J. Reese arrested Davis J. Cooper, 39, for a warrant from York County for failure to appear.

Friday, June 9
At 9:47 a.m. Officer Phil Taylor took a report of a missing person.
At 11:15 p.m. Officer T.J. Reese responded to a village business for a complaint of loud noise. The owner was told to turn his music down.
Thursday, June 8
At 8 a.m. Officer Phil Taylor received a report that the Shelburne dam was at Stage I. He notified town officials and business owners on the Androscoggin River whose property might be in danger from rising water.
At 12:50 p.m. Officer Phil Taylor took a report of a missing cell phone.
Wednesday, June 7
At 1:36 a.m. Officer Travis Fillmore observed an ATV coming up Mill Hill with no lights. The officer tried to stop the vehicle, which resulted in a brief chase that he then discontinued for safety reasons.
At 9 a.m. ACO Travis Fillmore received a complaint that a subject had been leaving his dog at home for days without letting him out or feeding him. The subject was to receive a written warning while the matter was under investigation.
At 8:30 a.m. Officer Phil Taylor received a report that a young male was walking on Vernon Street and appeared to be in distress. The officer found the youth walking home, and he appeared to be all right. He was given a ride.

Briefly

Alford indicted on theft charges

BETHEL—William Craig Alford of Bethel, former treasurer of the Rotary Club of Bethel, was indicted by an Oxford County Grand Jury last Thursday on Class B felony theft charges, according to officials at the District Attorney's office. Alford, 48, was charged in April with the theft of approximately $62,000 from the club. An arraignment date is expected to be scheduled sometime in July. A Class B theft carries a penalty of up to 10 years in prison.

Willard All American in track

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—Telstar graduate Anna Willard placed sixth Friday in the 3,000-meter steeple chase at the NCAA Track and Field Championships. Willard, a recent graduate of Brown University, set both a new school and personal record with a time of 10:06.83. Her finish gives her All-American status for the second time in her collegiate career. She first became an All-American with an eighth-place finish in the distance medley relay at the NCAA Indoor Championships, held in March. "Anna has had quite a breakthrough year this year," said Brown coach Craig Lake. "She has become one of the top runners in the nation, and has tremendous range." A Greenwood resident, Willard ran distance events while attending Telstar. She graduated in 2002.

Haines state champ in discus

BETHEL—Telstar trackster Charles Haines won the individual title in the discus event Tuesday at the state Class C Track and Field Championships in Dover-Foxcroft. Haines threw the discus 136 feet, six inches.

Flu pandemic forum planned

BETHEL—The Oxford County Pandemic Influenza Planning Group will hold a public forum at the Rumford Town Hall on June 21 from 6 to 8 p.m. The forum will provide information and answer questions on procedures and plans the group is establishing to deal with a possible flu pandemic. Representatives will be present from many of the agencies, such as health organizations and emergency personnel, who support local residents both on a daily basis and during a crisis like a pandemic.

Benefit supper for "Gootch"

GREENWOOD—A public supper July 1 will benefit John Gauthier ("Gootch"), the CEO for Greenwood and Woodstock. Gauthier suffered a heart attack while vacationing in Washington State, and underwent surgery. The supper starts at 5 p.m. at the Greenwood Town Hall. The No Name Banjo Band will provide musical entertainment. There will also be a 50/50 raffle and a silent auction.

Wild World of Summer in Bethel

BETHEL—The Boston-based travel show, "Wild World of Summer" is featuring Bethel in an upcoming broadcast. In addition to the Boston area, it will be shown in Maine on the WB network Saturday at 8 p.m. Produced by Dan Egan, known for his extreme ski videos, the show will focus on Bethel's summer delights instead. It includes interviews with Les Otten, Steve Wight, and Conni St.Pierre.

MLT meetings in area towns

BETHEL—The Mahoosuc Land Trust has scheduled meetings in area towns for its Conservation Initiative. The purpose of the meetings are to explain the public's role in Participatory TIS maps. The schedule is as follows: June 17, 9 a.m. to noon at Andover Dump; June 24, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Gilead Historical Society Friends and Family Event; July 15, Mollycoddett Day; Aug. 6, Andover Old Home Days; and Aug. 12, Umbagog Wildlife Festival, Errol, N.H. For more information, call Ginger Kelly at 824-3806.

Senior Appreciation Day

FRYEBURG—Senior Appreciation Day Picnic will take place on Friday, June 30, from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Fryeburg Fair Grounds. The picnic is sponsored by the Oxford County Sheriff's Office TRIAD Program (crime prevention for senior citizens), area law enforcement agencies and Oxford County Business. The event is free and the day's events include fun, laughter, great conversation, popcorn, coffee, doughnuts, a picnic lunch, ice cream and cake for dessert. This year we will be entertained by the Swingin' Bears Square Dance Club and Dot Canwell & Friends. There will also be an informational booth, musical entertainment, a Chinese Auction to help fund other TRIAD Projects, fudge/book sale and 50/50 tickets and door prizes that you must be present to win. For more information call Linda Hooker, administrative assistant, at (207) 743-9554 ext. 3 or (800) 733-1421 ext. 3.

of this month. The boosters have been soliciting donations and holding fundraising events for the past year and a half. The fund now totals $71,656 in cash and pledges. All the money was raised locally, treasurer Jodie Wilson said. The funds would support a football program for its first three years. If and when implemented, the school program would start with a J.V. team and move up through the grades as the players progressed. A community youth football league, for elementary school aged players, was started last summer.

The SAD44 School Board is scheduled to take action on the football program Monday.

OVER THE TOP—The Newry Mothers Club, which is disbanding, last week donated the remaining $6,200 of its treasury to the Telstar Football Boosters. The contribution puts the boosters over their goal of raising $70,000 to fund re-establishing football at Telstar. Here, Nancy Wight(right) presents the check from the club to boosters' treasurer Jodie Wilson. Tim O'Connor (kneeling, left) paints the gauge measuring contributions over the past two years to reflect the achievement. Kneeling at right is booster Doug Wilson. Other boosters are, standing from left: Terri O'Connor, Gerry Broomhall, Brenda Wight and Brad Wight; Mothers Club members Gil Seeley, Sylvia Gray, Karlene Bachelder and Loretta Powers. (Photo: A. go back to the School Board, Murphy said, and the board will have to prepare it to be resubmitted to district voters. The amount of money in the resubmitted article must be different from the original amount, and the board must decide what the new figure will be. "It can be higher or lower," Murphy said, "but I think it's safe to say it's not going to be higher." The board will also have to decide whether to resubmit the article at a second referendum, or at a district budget meeting. Murphy spent much of Wednesday morning on the telephone attempting to figure out how the district should proceed following Tuesday's vote. But he already had other matters on his calendar, matters that are likely to be affected by Tuesday's vote. "Unfortunately, I've scheduled interviews this morning," he said Wednesday, "for positions I'm probably not going to fill."

For half a century Mothers' Club helped local kids and schools

By ALISON ALOISIO

The disbanding of the Newry Mothers' Club brings to a close 50 years of funding everything from film projectors for the town's one-room schools to annual trips for children to Storyland.

Charter members Karlene Bachelder and Nancy Wight were there when the club was organized in the 1950s, and there when the vote was taken in May to dissolve it.

The group began to take shape around 1950, Bachelder said, with a fundraiser known as Box Suppers.

"We'd put together box lunches, and people would bid on them. We auctioned them to the highest bidder. We raised money for a projector and screen for the Branch School."

The school, the town's first, was located in North Newry.

The club was established formally a few years later and box suppers went away, replaced by traditional fundraising suppers, said Bachelder.

A second school, the Powers School, opened in 1951. It was located about a mile north of Route 2 on the Bear River Road.

"We bought things like easels, paints and games for the schools," Bachelder said.

The organization also served as a social group for the stay-at-home moms. "None of us worked. It was a good way to get out for a night," she said. "When we started the club, we had about 30 members."

Annually, the mothers went on a dinner outing to the Town and Country in Gorham, N.H.

The club's support for the Newry schools continued through the 1960s, when pupils were all housed in the Raymond C. Foster Building.

When that school closed in the early 1970s and Newry's children went to Bethel, the club changed its focus.

"We decided to take the kids to Storyland, and we had Christmas and Halloween parties," Bachelder said.

The annual trip to the New Hampshire theme park often drew three dozen or more children.

The club also began giving scholarships to Newry graduates. Each year all the grads, usually about five, would receive $25 to $100 each, depending on the funds available.

In the 1990s, the club received a bequest of $10,000 from the estate of Les Otten's father.

The money was used to continue the traditional activities. But as time went on, the club's membership dwindled, and the town's Recreation Committee took over the funding and organization of the Storyland trip.

For the younger club members, time was short, as many worked outside the home. For the older ones, "it was a lack of energy," Bachelder said.

So last month, with mixed feelings, the remaining half dozen members voted to disband.

"It was sad, but we knew we had to do something," Bachelder said.

Thank You

The students of Crescent Park Elementary School class of 2006 would like to offer their sincerest gratitude to everyone who assisted with our fundraising efforts. The generosity and support from the numerous area businesses, community members and parents provided a trip to Boston that was a great success and will always be remembered with fond memories. All your donations, hard work and support are greatly appreciated!

We have tried with every effort to include all those that have supported our cause. We truly apologize for anyone who has been mistakenly omitted.

Bethel

by Virginia Keniston

Ginger Kelly will be at the Tri-Town Transfer Station on some Saturday mornings from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. giving out Mahoosuc Initiative Maps.

The Methodist Women met at the Cinnamon Stick for lunch on Wednesday.

The Red Hat ladies are meeting for breakfast at the Sudbury Inn on Friday, the 16th, at 8:30 a.m..

Ray and Joan Cole are leaving to spend the summer at Belgrade Lakes.

Brenda Wodka's son from Virginia is spending ten days visiting with her.

Rachel and Ted McKnight came over from Vermont and joined Ginny to go to Elsie Keniston's graduation at Leavitt High School on Friday. She is the daughter of Peter and Stacy Keniston. On Saturday we attended the dance recital with Sarah Keniston, daughter of Peter and Stacy, at the Lewiston Middle School, directed by Elizabeth Hansen. On Sunday we attended the dance recital at Gould Academy with the three Bangs great-granddaughters, Kalynn, Abbie and Madison.

Tom and Dawn Giroux spent the weekend in Bangor with relatives.

Oxford Hills Duplicate Bridge battled the rain and the cards Friday. Players from Casco, Naples and Lewiston joined those from the Oxford Hills area. Winners were: Flight A: first, Pat and Mike Quinn; second, Dick Allen and Pete Cummings. Flight B: first, Carol Curran and Janice Wolfe; second, Marta Clements and Nancy Farmer. Flight C: first, Bev Dolan and Bev Pelletier; second, Barbara and Paul Beegel.

Mayville News

By Donald Bennett

There was no activity at Mayville's two new development sites, Twitchell Brook Estates and Mayville Junction Condominiums.

Despite wet weather, a crew was at work this week at Schiavi Homes Sales Center applying some finishing touches in readiness for its open house show on Thursday, June 15.

There is climate proof that last winter was milder than the three previous years. Brook Bros. records daily high and low temperatures for use in oil delivery planning. Our local "global warming" trend is shown below expressed as average daily mean temperatures from Oct 1 to May 1.

Heating Year, Average Daily Mean Temperature in Degrees F. 2000-2001, 33.8; 2001-2002, 37.2; 2002-2003, 30.9; 2003-2004, 33.2; 2004-2005, 32.3; 2005-2006, 36.0.

Mean temperatures for the spring, summer, and fall periods of May 2 to Sept. 30 remained pretty constant — 66.8 to 66.6 except in 2005 when it dropped to 65.8.

Since Oct. 1, 2000, only 13 days registered a daily mean temperature below zero — four days in 2003, five in 2004 and four in 2005. The coldest winter period was in January 2003 when the low temperature for five consecutive days was 15 below.

From June 2001 through June 2003, the high temperature was over 100 on nine days — no days with highs over 100 degrees in 2004 and 2005.

The Riverside Cemetery Association has recently received donations to its riverbank fund from Laurel Blossom, Doris Brown, Margery Swan and Stephen Seames. The association is grateful for their contributions.

On Saturday we had a half-hour romantic drama unfold in front of our kitchen window. The largest tom turkey we have ever seen showed two turkey ladies his dance steps and fine plumage. Now we know where the 18th Century lords and ladies learned their ballroom dance steps — glide, pause and strut your feathers. Soon more young hens showed up only to be driven off to safety by their mother superior.

Our rainfall this week amounted to four and one-eighth inches; luckily it was spread over five days. On Saturday the river was up considerably but was about four feet below the top of the bank at our place. When I checked on the river flow at the Riverside Cemetery on Sunday, the previously damaged riverbank showed no additional damage. The river's main current was centered in the channel and not pointed to the bank.

Looking back at Mayville history tells a different story for about the same amount of rain. In the afternoon of Nov. 4, 1927, five inches of rain from a sudden cloudburst hit Berlin, N.H., and the upper Androscoggin River valley. The result was a flood in Bethel that washed out three temporary bridges, one at Mayville — the other two were at Sunday River (near John and Bonnie Marshall's house) and Pleasant River. Eleven or twelve Bethel families were forced out of their homes. Mayville's big bridge was undergoing replacement from the old (toll at one time) covered bridge to a steel truss bridge. It was the temporary trestle bridge that went downstream. The old bridge had been closed to traffic on Sept. 20, 1927. The company erecting a new bridge reported a $5,000 loss due to the flood.

For some time after the flood there was no bridge into Mayville. An item in The Oxford County Advertiser noted, "The people in Bethel and all that travel via the toll bridge way are enjoying the conveniences of their forefathers, as a ferry boat has been installed, with Everett McKeen as ferry man. It is running regularly until half past eight in the evening. Well people are mighty glad of the way to cross the river under the circumstances."

Gilead

by Lin Chapman

I don't know about most people, but I had kind of hoped that by now the winter clothes could have been put away and summer would be here. This past weekend was cold and dreary and some people were running their furnaces and even wood stoves to take the chill off.

I talked to my brother, Steve McLain, and he finally had a chance to get his garden planted. His son, Brad, came to help him, and they even got some lawn mowing done between the raindrops.

Linda Smith called on Sunday to check on preparations for Election Day on June 13. While we were talking, she passed on some news for the column. Her mother and stepfather, Zora and Asa Session from Scipio, Ind., were guests at her house last week. They were celebrating their anniversary with a trip to the Penobscot High Stakes Bingo weekend. There was a bus that picked them up on Friday in Gilead and brought them back on Sunday evening. Linda said that there were around 3,000 people who attended this event.

Linda also got to go on the Kindergarten trip with her granddaughter, Morgan McLean, daughter of Jamie and Alicia McLean. Morgan's brother, Tanner, got to go along and had a great time. They went to Peaks Island on the Casco Bay Ferry and after lunch, they went to Pine Point Beach. Tanner will be 3 years old in September, and he just started an eight-week Early Head Start program that is held at the West Bethel Children's Center. He gets to go for a couple of hours on Tuesday morning and is just having the time of his life, according to his grandmother.

Dan Cole stopped by this past weekend to drop off a paper that told all about the interesting visitor that he has had at his hummingbird feeders and hanging plants. It turns out that it is a hummingbird moth and it looks just like a tiny ruby-throated hummingbird. This moth is a small Spinx moth, but it flies during the day instead of night as other moths do. Their bodies are usually an olive green, with red bands across the abdomen. Since the colors are close to the ruby-throated hummingbird, along with the way it feeds and the sound of its wings, it is easy to see why it is mistaken for a small hummingbird. I remember that the first time that Hugh and I saw one a few years ago; we were quite intrigued with it.

Gilead Historical Society
We have been busy getting ready for the June 24 Friends and Family Day. Cynthia Handlen had a nice picture and article in the Lewiston Sun last week about the event. Just as a reminder; there will be a final planning meeting on June 17 at 1 p.m. at the Town Hall.

The GHS hopes to make this a fun day for the people of Gilead and our neighboring towns and all their friends and family from away. There is still plenty of room to set up to display materials from your group or as a vendor. We hope that kids of all ages will plan on participating in the "Kids at Heart" parade to be held on Depot Street. Decorate your bike or 4-wheeler or just plan on walking in the parade. No vehicles larger than a 4-wheeler please. Remember, this is an historical event, so dress up as a logger, a farmer, a homemaker of the early days or your favorite old-time character. Everyone is welcome to participate as long as you are a kid at heart!

The booklet on Hastings has arrived and is ready for sale. We have had several inquiries about it and the cost is $9 for members and $10 for nonmembers. If we have to mail the book, there is a postage and handling fee of $2 for one book and $1 for each additional book. The GHS can be reached by calling Lin at 836-2987 or Bev at 836-2032. E-mail address is chapmal@hotmail.com.

This week's bit of history again comes from the newest publication of the GHS "Hastings" by Howard Reiche and Hugh Chapman.

"Why would the Gilead Historical Society be more interested in writing about the history of Hastings than that of the other adjoining towns?"

"Primarily, because these two towns were joined at the hip from the beginning of the demand for logs and timber in the 1830s. Gilead's population was at its peak and fairly stable from 1830 (377) to 1900 (340). This period coincides with the zenith of the lumbering and forest product industries of the Wild River Valley and the Village of Hastings."

A few interesting dates from the timeline in the book:

1804-Commonwealth of Massachusetts chartered Gilead, with twenty families
1870-Hastings family began

West Bethel

by Lorrie Hoeh

It seems that bears are in the news this week. Last Wednesday evening at dusk as Mike and I were returning home down the Flat Road, we spotted a bear crossing the road west to east, from near Jimmy Merrill's to the field in front of Lorretta Merrill's. Mike estimated its weight to be between 250 and 300 pounds.

A day or two later, I had an e-mail from Chris Trefethen, reporting her first bear sighting of the season. She said she only saw it heading into the woods, but thought it looked like a cub, and Mama was probably not far away. Could be it was related to the one we saw? Chris also reports that they have a whippoorwill living near their house who is out every night. They've been hearing it for several weeks, and sometimes it's so loud, Chris swears he's sitting underneath their bedroom window.

Speaking of Chris, this weekend is the big American Lung Association bike ride fundraiser, in which she is participating. There is still time to send a check, made out to ALA Maine, directly to Chris Trefethen at PO Box 667, Bethel, ME 04217. You go, girl!

In other wildlife sightings, I stopped my car on Grover Hill Road, near the sharp turn at the other end, for a doe running across the road left to right. I sat to wait in case there were others to follow, and then saw a fawn on the left, running away hell-bent for election. After a brief pause, Mom ran back across, presumably to summon her baby and proceed with whatever her plans were.

Maureen Libby called on Friday to tell me of Baby Boy Alpaca No. 4, born to Lady Luck that day, weighing 18 pounds, 3 ounces. There is one baby yet to come, and we all have our fingers crossed for a girl this time. The males have good fleece, but the females are more highly prized because they have the babies, as well as good fleece. So let's cheer for a girl!

Joan Gable recently gave me an enthusiastic account of her first nights away from her Flat Road residence in the nine years she and Joe have lived here. A while back Joe and Joan acquired a mule named "April Storm" from folks who live in Great Pond, Maine. April even received an eleventh birthday present from her former "mother." A fast friendship has developed, and Joan finally accepted an invitation to visit April's "parents" at their waterfront home on Small Pond.

Joan said that she was greeted by the resident Indian Runner Duck, Stanley. It seems Stanley greets all vehicles and tries to get into them. He also runs alongside Mandy the dog and plucks her fur, with no protest from Mandy. A big black and white horse named Lucky completes the domestic menagerie, complemented by the native loons. Joan describes her hosts' abode as just idyllic, with the lake, the fir trees, the loon calls, and the friendly animals. Topping off the visit was a fried clam gorge in nearby Ellsworth.

In an aside, Joan told me that her hostess is a spinner (as am I) who used to have several fiber animals, but now has only one angora rabbit with no name. Joan suggested that they name the rabbit "Gabby" after her. (She said I could print that!)

Some of you may remember Kapri Merrill, the daughter of director Kieth Merrill of "The Twelve Dogs of Christmas." The Gables have maintained a friendship with Kapri since the filming (Joe actually had a speaking part!) and keep up a correspondence. Recently, they received the happy news from her that she will be getting married on June 30 to Jeffrey Von Hill. I seem to recall that Kapri was the one who shepherded all the children who appeared in the movie, and she was a lovely, personable, and capable young woman. We wish her all the best in her coming marriage.

On Sunday afternoon I attended a memorial service for George Gamble. It was truly a "celebration of life," with remembrances from his three children, and eulogies and songs by various nieces, nephews, grandchildren, etc., capped off by a rendition of "The Candyman" by all the younger generation present. George was a remarkable human being who is sure to be sorely missed.

Last year while on a hiking Elderhostel in Provence, we met a delightful couple from Asheville, N.C., Paula and Gerry McNabb. Gerry attended his fiftieth reunion at Dartmouth College last weekend (in the rain!), and since they were so close, he and Paula came on to the Flat Road to visit with us for a couple of days. We enjoyed rehashing our Provence trip and catching up on each other's lives. Common interests in photography and hiking spurred the friendship.

SUMMER PROGRAMS

Summer Adventure Program:

June 26-August 18 • Grades 6-8

6 weeks of themed adventure and enrichments that may include swimming, cooking, gardening, and games. Field trips.

Medieval Defense Camp: June 27-29

This program will offer youth a chance to do some problem solving as they try to design a Trebuchet to launch squash and water balloons.

They will also learn basic archery, and play with pugil sticks in a medieval game of unbalancing your opponent. In addition, they will also create their own Shield. We will team up with Project Youth.

Canoe Craze: July 5-6

This program will give students the opportunity to master basic canoe skills including paddle strokes on a lake. Day two we will learn how to read a river as we travel down the mighty Androscoggin. Students must know how to swim to participate in this course. Instructor: Steve Keane

Carnival Camp: July 11-13

This program will give students a taste of the circus life as they learn to walk on stilts, master scarf juggling, bubble making, hula hoop diving, tumbling, face painting, balloon animals, and bicycle riding. We will team up with Project Youth in Gorham, NH.

Carpentry Bees: July 18-20

Learn basic carpentry skills and show off your abilities by replacing the TMS greenhouse roof. In addition, make a project of your own to take home out of wood. Instructor: Tim O'Connor

Mosaic Madness: July 25-27

Work as part of a team to create a mural for TMS using cut glass. Learn the art of mosaic while you make a lasting impression on the school and help to beautify it. Instructor: Melissa Prescott

This Monday morning the sun is out full, and glad we are to see it. Let's hope we can dry out a little before the next monsoon. Call or write with news: 836-3011; dhoeh@megalink.net.

Mason

by Richard Grover

My son Dean brought his family here for a few days over the Memorial Day weekend. He and wife Samantha (Sam) have 9-year old twins who are about as different as two kids can be. Amanda is a little on the heavy side and loves to eat, particularly mashed potatoes and almost anything with them. Ryan is slim and doesn't eat much of anything but hot dogs and snacks. Amanda is appreciative and loves the dolls and doll clothes that Mona made for her; she wanted Mona to show her how to make the dolls and even sent a thank-you note afterward. Ryan likes a perfect knife and a double-bladed axe! His parents patiently explained why he still did not have these items, and would not until he matured enough to deserve them. Ryan had been taking karate lessons and was one step from earning a black belt, when he quit. Dean and Sam had promised that he could have a nice sword in a display case to be displayed on his bedroom wall if he earned his black belt.

Then, Ryan was in Cub Scouts and wanted a pocket-knife, which he could have if he but learned the six rules of safely handling a knife -- which he never did. And the "double-bladed axe?" He was told that not even lumberjacks use them any more because they are so dangerous. Ryan was not convinced! Brother Rupert went into the Norway Hospital (Portland surgeon) last week to have hip replacement surgery to "re-place" the hardware in his right hip that was installed about 15 years ago. The old "hardware" was worn out and had been giving him a lot of pain lately. Although dreading the surgery, he and Ina were both in favor of the operation in the hopes of alleviating the pain, even if he might not walk very well afterward. The operation proved to be a success, and Rupert was home again on Friday, only three days after the surgery. Saturday evening Mona and I dropped in to see how he was progressing and were surprised to see that he wanted to play a "few hands of cards." He was still going strong at 10 p.m. He maintains that he is having no pain in either the hip or the right leg, which had been so painful before the surgery. He is getting around the house with the help of a walker, otherwise unaided. He has been through it before and does his own physical therapy, making numerous trips up and down the hall daily. We'll probably see him out hunting this fall!

Thought for the day: "Don't put off until tomorrow what you can do today, because if you enjoy it today, you can do it again tomorrow." (James Michener, April 2005 Bits & Pieces magazine).

Locke Mills

by Lorraine Larson

My daughter, Marcia Smith, from Easton, is visiting her brother, Ralph, (and Lorene), and for a week or two. She came Sunday with her husband, Jon. Jon had a seminar in Bar Harbor in connection with his work so they traveled down from "the County" on Wednesday, spent a couple days in Bar Harbor, and then went to Jay to visit his brother and wife, Don and Jane Smith, attended their "home away from home" church, Calvary Hill, in Wilton, Sunday morning, arriving at my doorstep in the afternoon. Jon visited for a little bit and then headed back to Easton. He wanted to get home that evening but the drive back was so foggy he stopped for the night in Bangor, heading out early in the morning and was back home some time after 8. It is a long drive by oneself, but, at least, he had company for half the trip.

Sunday, at Praise Assembly in Rumford Center, we had a missionary, Priscilla Greer, from Mexico, visit our church. It was quite interesting to hear about the people in Mexico. She said, contrary to popular belief, Mexico is quite a rich country overall. She said it was perfectly able to be as affluent a country as the United States if the government was not so corrupt. She said it was rich in natural resources, such as oil, and if the government would use them wisely there would not be any need for the Mexicans to jump the border because their own country could provide them work and a good way of life. But corruption is so rampant that no one will do anything unless they get a big pay back for it and so far no one has had the vision to see what could be done because the government doesn't really care if a lot of people are hurting as long as they are not. What a mess people can create when their only motive is greed and selfishness and they have no sense of caring or vision.

Lorene Mills spent the night, Thursday, at her mother's, Laura Hutchins, so she could take her mother to an early appointment she had in Lewiston. Laura has been having quite a bit of trouble with her back lately, which is now affecting her legs. We hope she will find out soon what is going on and that the problem can be corrected quickly.

I have been having a beautiful big orange and white short-haired cat with a white stripe down his nose visiting me lately. I hope he belongs to someone nearby and is not lost. They can travel so far sometimes that they sort of forget where they live.

Little people can be so much fun, sometimes. Now that Ricky has moved up to the first grade he is feeling very grown up and confident, which is cute to watch but is rather worrisome also, as he thinks he can tackle anything "by himself." It takes some doing sometimes not to destroy the confidence but still keep him safe. Alas, the road to independence is fraught with many potholes!

I miss seeing the loon who is usually sitting on the nest box on North Pond. I guess she either didn't make it or the weather has discouraged her. She must be, or had been, pretty old. She had nested there for quite a few years. It is unusual for a loon to like such an open spot to nest in. She must have liked the attention or the company.

Oh, how we would like to see the sunshine and a little June warmth. Those who have ventured outdoors may have seen some new town residents. A large black bear nonchalantly strolled past our dooryard and up Mill Road. He casually entered the Taylor's yard and cut through to Walter Stanczyk's. While at their home he destroyed three birdfeeders and devoured the contents.

As I drove down Route 26 toward Errol, at the Bull Moose area I spotted three cute kit foxes. They were rolling and tumbling on the side of the road, they scrambled to safety when I blew the horn. A young porcupine was seen finding its way across the road at the Grafton line. The cutest baby of all was a lovely very young moose. Its color was light brown. Big Momma Moose, and she was big, blocked its way to the road. Driving with caution is advised because these young creatures know nothing about life on the roads in the great North Woods.

Jennifer Casey was up lake checking on the loons when she spotted an immature red-throated loon. Time will tell if the high water has harmed any loon nests in the area.

Saturday was a very nasty day with many downpours.

The road between Colebrook and the Balsams washed out. There were also mudslides in Dixville Notch.

Father Belle, who conducts services at St. Pius Church in Errol, was stranded at the Balsams while saying Mass on Saturday and could not get down Route 26 to Errol. No Mass was held this week in Errol. Lionel Roy passed the word so there was very little traffic this Sunday on Route 26 to Errol. I'd like to be stranded at the Balsams.

Stoney Brook opened with a torrent of water. The Dead Cambridge was so loud it could be heard across the lake.

The Ladies Aid had a wonderful time last week gossiping and making gift bags for the end-of-the-summer fair. Members present were, Simone Lavalley, Ginny Williamson, Jerry Kenney, Debora Judkins, Brenda Dyer, Ellie LeComte and Margaret Mitchell.

In regard to the big black bear, the Angevines also have a destroyer at their house. The monster had a good meal there also. Sue says that all feeders are stored indoors at sundown.

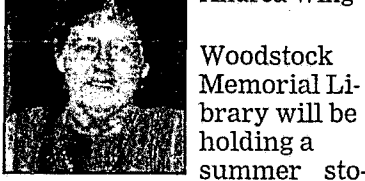

The town is spotted with mountain ash trees in bloom. The rain must have encouraged them. The lupine are beginning to bloom all over town and they are beautiful to behold.

The "Bird of the Week" is a Blackburnian warbler spotted at Sue Angevine's on East "B" Hill.

It is very lush and green out there but I can't help saying, "Rain, rain go away, come again some other day!"

South Woodstock

Woodstock Memorial Library will be holding a summer story hour for children four and up, beginning June 20 from 10 to 11 a.m. Valerie Billings and Sheryl Morgan will be offering stories and crafts. Everyone is welcome; there is no charge.

Alexis Grover is home for a while until she receives further orders for training. Alexis is in the National Guard.

Chea Davis graduated this month from Telstar Regional High School. Chea is the daughter of Tammy and Vern Davis. I wish her lots of luck.

Joe Pete Appleby came by and showed us a real small baby coon he had caught. It was very cute.

I am sorry for so much rainy weather for Old Home Days in West Paris. Everyone had a good time in spite of it.

Anna Snyder stopped by to get Kellie's address and Kellie was here. They have been friends for years but had not seen each other for ages. They had a nice time and exchanged telephone numbers.

Happy Birthday to Duane Ryerson who celebrates this month.

Congratulations to Danielle Appleby who received her high school GED diploma from Oxford Hills High. Dani is the daughter of Joe Pete Appleby and the late Laurene Appleby. I am very proud of her and wish her the best.

Kellie Wing and Vinny Lima went to the coast and paid a visit to Fred and Eleanor Farnum at the summer camp. They had a great time visiting.

In spite of the weekend, the West Paris Old Home Days first Art Show, organized by Carol L. Corriveau, was successful and enjoyed by all that attended.

Local artists participating in this year's first Art Show were: Carol L. Corriveau, Pastel/Watercolor, West Paris; Thelma Denlinger, Watercolor, Norway; Ruth Friberg, Pastel/Watercolor/Oil, Oxford; Deb Lewis, Watercolor/Clay and More, Bethel; Elena Noyes, Watercolor/Pastel, Bryant Pond.

These artists donated a special painting to the American Legion Auxiliary Post 151, West Paris for a raffle to benefit the Veterans Memorial Fund.

Winners of the raffle were: Herman Doughty, Andy Goudreau, Dottie Heath, Amy Spain. Congratulations to all. A special thank you to all the artists, and to Cleo Ryerson, Jackie Stevens, Elena Noyes, and Ruth Friberg for braving the wet weather to man the art tent.

The West Paris American Legion Post 151 would like to thank the West Paris Old Home Days committee, and everyone who stopped by to appreciate the fine art, and especially for supporting the Veterans Memorial Fund.

Because of all the positive responses that were received we hope to see you all next year with a bigger art show filled with plenty of sunshine. Again thank you all. — Carol L. Corriveau, West Paris Old Home Days and West Paris American Legion Post 151.

Larry Billings, curator, Woodstock Historical Society reports that the museum never ceases to amaze members and visitors alike. It is a real treasure trove of exhibits.

Our members are all volunteers generous with their time. Woodstock has been very supportive of our projects and everyone takes an interest in the society. Thanks to all.

Quote of the Week: "I have learned that putting things in a safe place does not mean you can find them again when you look."

Friday evening, family and friends attended the graduation of our granddaughter (the K. Hoyt's) Marybeth Hoover at Oxford Hills Christian School. It was a very nice graduation. Saturday evening, Steve and Beth held a graduation party for her and Sunday at a luncheon at the Baptist Church a surprise party was given Marybeth. She leaves in September for Pensacola Christian College, in Pensacola, Fla.

Kay Hoover has been visiting her son and family, Steve, Beth and Marybeth. She attended graduation and the parties; she returned home on Thursday to New York.

Services at the Baptist Church are Sunday School at 9:15 a.m., morning worship at 10:30 a.m., choir practice at 5 p.m., and evening service at 6 p.m.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 is prayer meeting. Thursday morning at 9 is ladies prayer time. Saturday, June 17, is Men's Banquet and the last weekend of July is the church's 150th anniversary, with special music, fun and games and special speakers, etc. Hope the townspeople will come and help celebrate.

Franklin Grange 124 met Monday evening with election of officers. Next meeting will be June 19 for "Old-timers' Night" with refreshments.

News from Mrs. Nieberle: She went to a Rookies baseball game to see Russell Cushman and his teammates play. She got to talk to Deanna Rothwell. Her mother, father, husband John and their three children, Lucy, Blake and Cameron were there. Blake and Cameron play on the same team as Russell.

Well Ellie Andrews came up with another new adventure, not only is she running a ladies workout center but as of June 12 she opened a men's workout center called Andy's Workout Express. Ellie even performs marriage ceremonies on weekends. She is a notary.

A funny new mystery book is out, "Dark Port" mystery by Diane Mott Davidson. It has been a series and the first few are "Catering to Nobody," "Dying for Chocolate," "The Cereal Murders." They are about a caterer named Goldy who seems to find a corpse at most of her functions. Also, she has recipes in the books for you to use.

Mrs. Nieberle went to see the "Da Vinci Code." It was very fast-paced and kept you guessing to the end. She hasn't read the book, but enjoyed the movie.

The Route 26 Chowder House is now open from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. They have added picnic tables.

The Trap Corner Restaurant and River Restaurant are on the market. The building next door to Market Square Restaurant is going to be fixed and attached to the restaurant to make it bigger.

The speaker at the Whitman Memorial Library is Hugh Swan, who will be showing wooden toys made out of spools and elastic. They are similar to toys made by the Ekco Tebbets mill in the past. This is today (June 15) from 10 to 11 a.m. All are welcome, no charge, light refreshments.

The Summer Story Hour at Whitman Library will begin on Tuesday, June 20, from 10 to 11 a.m. Ages 4 and up are invited. Valerie Billings and Sheryl Morgan will be doing stories and crafts.

Sympathy is extended to Dot Cushman and family in the death of her mother.

The Woodstock Extension will meet on Wednesday, June 21, at 10:30 a.m. at Lois Howe's home for a planning meeting and potluck luncheon.

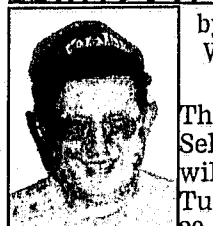

On June 3, President Olive Risko and Curator Larry Billings watched the Historical Society Museum. The society values your participation as a member, a donor, a citizen of the area, or a visitor. And you benefit from their services if you will take advantage of them. They put a lot of work into the museum, the meetings and all their activities just for you. So join in.

Curator Larry Billings has donated a new guest book, as the old one is full. He also gave another book on Lincoln. This one is on young Abraham Lincoln. The research library is really good. The museum has a good collection of classics Larry has given. The museum is a very valuable resource to everyone in the area. Visit this summer because society members are anxious to greet you and show you the extensive collections.

They have artwork on Portland Headlight house, Niebble Light and Bass Harbor light. They also have bridge scenes. Paul Billings is keeping the dehumidifier going. He also mows the lawn and Annella Burnham has planted the urn. It looks very nice. Thanks to both. The meetings are the second Saturday afternoon from 1 to 4 p.m. during the summer.

Larry Billings listened to music dedicated to U.S. Soldiers on Memorial Day. He also is finishing up the novel, "We were the Muhaneys" by Joyce Carol Dates. It is a modern classic. He has also been framing things for his Cultural Center.

Hanover

by Clem Worcester

The Hanover Select Board will meet on Tuesday, June 20, at the Town Office at 6 p.m. The Planning Board met on Wednesday, June 7, and because of Independence Day the July meeting is scheduled for July 12.

The Gardner Roberts Memorial Library Annual Meeting is Wednesday, June 21, at the Hanover Town Office. There will be election of officers, business conducted and discussions about moving the library building and fundraising. All interested persons are invited.

Coming soon will be a bottle drive to benefit the library-moving fund. Sara Moir will head up the activity.

Congratulations go to the area students that were graduated from high school this year. They include Nick Gross, Erica Dyer, Aaron Arsenault, Erin Forbes and Sarah Daye.

Former Hanover summer resident William Bartlett passed away on June 1, in Alabama. His wife, Edith, had predeceased him in 2004. We send sympathy to his family.

We also extend sympathy to Gail Parent and her family upon the passing of Gail's brother, Burton Crossland.

Estella Glover, who formerly lived on Ellis River Road, passed away at the age of 89. Her son, John Howe, passed away in May. We send sympathy to their families.

Former Rumford Center resident June Grace passed away last Thursday in Lewiston. Again we extend sympathies to the family.

Has the marauding bear returned? This time the bear was caught in the act as he made a daytime raid on Joan Everett's birdfeeders. Joan says that she takes her feeders in at night and she did not suspect a daytime attack.

Rains continued during most of the past week with washout-damaging downpours occurring over the weekend. Several power failures shut off the electricity in much of Hanover last week. Some were momentary but others lasted several

West Paris

by Joyce Lamb

All is wet and green in West Paris. The fields are lush and the grass is growing fast. The schools are winding down and the children will soon be out playing ball and riding their bikes. If the sun shines for a few days it may get warm enough for swimming.

On Sunday, June 18, the Youth Group of the Norway Universalist Church will present the service at the West Paris Universalist Church. It starts at 9 a.m. and is followed by refreshments. Jim Burke is the organist.

My brother, Glendon Allen, is recovering from a heart attack at his home in Buckfield. Nicolas Hartley of Auburn celebrated his fifth birthday with a party given by his parents, Kelly and Cameron Hartley. Attending were Jude Lamb, the proud grandmother; Joyce Lamb the great-grandmother; and many little cousins and aunts and uncles. The younger ones enjoyed games on the lawn and all enjoyed the large birthday cake built like a castle made by his mother. Ice cream and chocolate lollipops shaped like castles were also served.

On June 10 the wedding of Kate Duenkel and Vincent Gustavson was held at the Congregational Church in North Branford, Conn. The bride is the daughter of George and Marcia Duenkel and granddaughter of Elaine Blossom. They are frequent visitors in the area. Sayward and Cynthia Lamb of North Pond, Jeanne Whittemore, Wayne and Blaine Whittemore of Norway and I attended. A reception followed at the Owenego Inn beside the ocean. We left West Paris in rain but found the sun in northern Connecticut. The wedding was at 3 p.m. and the weather sunny and warm. After spending the night there we left Connecticut and the nice weather behind. We were told that Maine had hard rains while we were away. Traveling was pleasant even though it took five hours each way. It was nice visiting with so many relatives at such a nice party.

The big, fluffy cat was glad to see me and had kept the bed warm waiting for me to get

by Sheila Dyke

Greetings and hello from Albany Township. Well, last Friday was graduation night for the Telstar seniors, Class of 2006. Albany saw a few of its teens graduate that night. And, over the weekend many had family and friends over to celebrate their entry into the wonderful world of (drum roll, please) adults. Of course, many of the grads will be going on to college, and we wish them all the very best. Their families and friends must be very proud of them.

Saturday was an appallingly wet and rainy day. However, the Corriveaus, not allowing the weather to dampen their celebration, merely stretched tarps over the party area so that the merrymakers could still enjoy the food and celebrate with them and Marissa.

Tuesday, the 13th, was the last day of classes for SAD44, so, there will be children out and about playing, running around and riding bikes, etc. Please be careful when driving through neighborhoods, as sometimes kids forget that the road is a dangerous area.

Father's Day is this Sunday, so, you dads should be keeping track of what you want for your special day. Remember, kids, that sometimes all your parents really want is for you to all get along.

And, next Wednesday is the first day of summer!

We hope that everyone has a great week. God Bless and Keep.

East Bethel

Alder River Grange will have a Baked Bean Supper on June

17. The supper will start at 5 p.m. with hot dogs, salads, casseroles and pies. There will be baked items and fudge for sale as you come into the hall.

Congratulations to the graduating classes at Telstar and Gould Academy.

Diane Howe, Andrea Howe with Savannah, Rebekah Howe with Kimball, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Seames of Greenwood attended a dance recital at Gould Academy on June 11 with Skylar Howe as one of the dancers.

Let's hope the rain has stopped. The garden is not in yet, I don't seem able to get between the raindrops to drop in seeds.

Have a nice week everyone. God Bless the Troops.

Waterford

by Rockie Graham

It has been nice to finally feel the sunshine after so many days of rain. It may not last, but at least we had it for a little while.

This weekend is the annual American Lung Association Trek Across Maine. It is a three-day, 180-mile bicycle trek from Sunday River Ski Resort to Owl's Head Transportation Museum. I know several people riding so I am hoping for good weather. It was a trek I always thought I could take, but I am no longer sure I could. In any case, I would have a lot of riding to do to prepare for it. It is to earn money for the Maine Lung Association, which I think is a very good cause.

We had our hydraulic pump repaired today. That means we only need to get the lines switched and we'll be in good shape until they can move the engines upstairs. It'll be a big change and may make maintenance easier. For now, it is done down under the compactors and without electricity it is harder to do repairs. At least if we have both engines running, we'll be less likely to be shut down.

The last of our wood is stacked in the shed. That means we have less to do until fall. Then we can worry about moving things. We also will be looking for more kindling in a while. For now we are all set, but if I see any really good wood, I usually take it. It never hurts to be prepared.

My last two columns haven't been printed. Hopefully this one will make it. To that end, I will make it short. Have a great week and stay out of that sun!

Andover

by Melinda Averill

Hello readers, what a long, busy week. It seems like the last two weeks of school are always so busy — and I'm not even a teacher! Now for the start of a "beautiful" summer!

Congratulations to Andrew Farrington, who made the dean's list for two semesters at the University of Maine at Orono, where he is studying electrical engineering technology. Andrew is the son of Keith and Janet Farrington, Matthew and Jen Swain, Jericho, Vt., were overnight guests of their grandparents, Robert and Violet Swain recently. Jen graduates from high school on June 16. Matthew will be working in Dayton, Ohio, for the next two weeks.

Ten members of the East Andover Community Club met on June 12, with Barbara Meisner as hostess. After a short business meeting, games were enjoyed and gifts exchanged. Dessert was served. Violet Swain won the door prize. There will be no meeting in July. The Aug. 14 picnic will be at the Swain cottage at Roxbury Pond.

Happy Birthday this week to Julia Putnum on Saturday, Alyssa Cole and Nicolas Anastasio on Tuesday, the 20th, and Christina Downs on Wednesday, the 21st.

Betty Moore's granddaughter, Sarah Thomas, and her boyfriend visited for a week, while her daughter, Sandy, was away on her cruise. Sandy and her two sisters have returned from their trip, saying they had a good time, but it is nice to be home.

Happy Father's Day on Sunday.

From the Bethel Library

On Saturday, June 3, the Bethel Library held its annual Perennial Plant Sale. Even though it was pouring rain our donors and buyers came out for this community event. The library would like to give a big thank you to our plant committee for all their work, organization and dedication to this event. Thank you to Pinky Rinebold, Martha Siegel, Norm Davis, Melody Bonnema and Susan Day. We could not have done it without you. We would also like to thank Shirley and Bruce Powell for helping us move the tables and at the sale, Emily Beers for her phone calls and Lorrie Hoch and Kim Harrington for helping at the sale.

The following people donated plants and without them this fundraiser would be impossible. Thank you to John and Pauline Applin, Laurie Bailey, Jean Bass and Doris Peterson, Kathy Bennett, Gwyneth Bohr, Carla and Gaelan Boyle-Wright, Melody Bonnema, Seneca Corriveau, Melvina Cummings, Amy Davis, Norman Davis, Susan Day, Barbara Douglass and Karen Jordan, Carol Duplessis and Pooh Corner Farm, Margaret Haberman, Kim Harrington, Lauren Head, Lorrie Hoeh, Chris Hoyt, Leslie Kavanagh, Laura Lowell, Marna McGinniss, Susan Parker, Ginger Rickeman, Pinky Rinebold, Marilyn Sahlberg, Lucia and Eric Schwarz, Dr. and Mrs. Seashore, Martha Siegel, Jim St. Germain, Mary Swett, Sally Taylor, Jane Vogt, Peggy Wight, Diane York. We would also like to thank our anonymous donors who left plants the evening before the sale.

From Mahoosuc Land Trust

'Sunday in Janie's Garden' The Mahoosuc Land Trust will host "Sunday in Janie's Garden" at 32 Broad Street in Bethel on June 25 from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Cindy Tibbetts, of Hummingbird Farm in Turner, will be on hand during the afternoon. At 1 p.m. Cindy will give a presentation on "Clematis: Queen of the Flowering Vines." The charge is $15/person. Guests are encouraged to bring lunches; the Land Trust will provide deserts, iced tea, and lemonade.

Janie Vogt's informal English cottage garden features varieties of clematis, roses, and peonies among other annuals and perennials. She and husband Frank, assistant gardener and composter, have prevailed against heavy, clay soil with composting and raised beds. They wage constant warfare against the Japanese beetle with strong fingers and raised profanity.

Cindy and Brian Tibbetts, owners of Hummingbird Farm, added clematis to their line of interesting plants in 2001 and soon discovered that many of their customers were intimidated by these flowering vines. Since then they have researched and experimented constantly looking for rare and reliable varieties and the best techniques to plant and care for them.

In 2004 Cindy began speaking to garden clubs and other organizations. Her presentation covers plant selection, placement, planting, and pruning. It is designed to remove the mystique from growing clematis. Handouts will be provided, and live plants will give participants the chance to see rare specimens "up close and personal." She will have plants for sale after the program.

Here is an opportunity for you to view Janie's interesting garden, which was pictured in a 2005 issue of Better Homes and Gardens, and to benefit from the Tibbetts' years of extensive research and hands-on experience.

From the Bethel Rotary Club

The Rotary Club of Bethel is preparing for its two largest fundraisers of the year, to be held next week.

The Rotary Golf Challenge takes place Monday, June 19. It will be followed by the annual Yard Sale and Auction on Saturday, June 24.

Proceeds from the events help fund such efforts as the Rotary scholarship fund and leadership programs for area high school students.

We expect to have a particularly large assortment of items for our yard sale and auction this year.

The yard sale gets underway at 8 a.m. The Auction preview takes place at 5:30 p.m. and the auction at 6:30.

At last week's awards evening at Telstar High School, Bethel Rotary presented a total of $6,000 in scholarships to nine graduating seniors.

The club also recently made donations to support the following area groups: Mahoosuc Community Band; Boys State and Girls State through the American Legion Post 81; Troop 565 Boy Scouts; Bethel Public Library regular and summer reading program; Western Maine Girls Association (Girls on the Run); Bethel Historical Society; Mahoosuc Kids Association; Project Graduation; SAD44 Spring Musical and RYLA.

Gould student Erin Murphy of Bethel has recently been selected for a short term Rotary Youth exchange to Australia. Erin is also the co-president-elect for the Bethel Rotary's Interact Club.

Caribbean GSE team This week Bethel Rotarians hosted a Group Study Exchange (GSE) team of visiting Rotarians from the Southern Caribbean.

The GSE program of the Rotary Foundation is a unique cultural and vocational exchange opportunity for young business and professional men and women between the ages of 25 and 40 and in the early years of their professional lives.

The program provides travel grants for teams to exchange visits between paired areas in different countries. For four to six weeks, team members experience the host country's institutions and ways of life, observe their own vocations as practiced abroad, develop personal and professional relationships, and exchange ideas.

The five-member Caribbean team, representing four countries did a slide presentation on their countries at Tuesday's regular Bethel Rotary meeting.

A team from our local Rotary District 7780 recently returned from their trip to the Southern Caribbean.

Bethel Rotary's own Bob Laux will conclude his year as 7780's District Governor the end of this month. He has served the district well and we look forward to seeing him more in Bethel.

The Bethel Club will change its officers also at the end of this month. Incoming officers will include: president, Cynthia Moran-Laux, president elect, Pat Roma, vice president, Mike Steven, secretary, Jim Reuter, treasurer, Michele Varuolo and sergeant-at-arms, Rene McGrew.

From the Bethel Recreation Committee

The Bethel swimming program will take place weekdays at the Angevine Park Swim Pond on the North Road. Classes will begin Tuesday, June 27 and end Friday, July 14. There will be no classes July 4.

Any child 5 years old or entering kindergarten in the fall is eligible for Levels I-VI. Children age 4 and under are eligible for the infant/toddler/preschool program, which is taken with an adult.

For more information call Ellie Kingsbury at 824-3152x301. Registration forms are available in the Town Office.

Children will be placed in classes according to ability and age level.

The schedule will be: Level V and above, 8 to 8:45 a.m.; Level IV, 8:45 to 9:30 a.m.; Level III, 9:30 to 10:15 a.m.; Level II, 10:30 to 11 a.m.; Level I, 11:30 a.m. to noon. The infant/toddler/preschool will meet from noon to 12:30 p.m.

Graduation

lems they encounter. Valedictorian Melissa Yasko took the audience on a tour of a typical day at Telstar High School.

Her accounts, both humorous and serious, ranged from jockeying in the morning for a parking spot close to the school, to descriptions of the teaching styles of the staff.

"I cherish the little things about Telstar. They shaped me," she said.

Yasko said she hoped classmates would fondly remember the faculty and school.

Following Yasko, Stephen Scotti, Heather Gionet and Charli McGrew offered "Reflections" on the class members' experiences together, including kindergarten plays, rainy days at Bog Brook, late night poker games and sports championships.

The choral selection "Here I Go Again" followed, and Becky Cummings, chair of the SAD44 School Board, offered congratulatory remarks. Supt. David Murphy then certified the graduates.

In Lambert's remarks that followed, he offered a humorous test of how the seniors would know they were "Rebels" — for example, if they could talk on any subject for 15 minutes after doing their senior presentation, find a way to get to the cafeteria 30 seconds before the rest of their class, or had been part of a championship team.

Lambert and Murphy then awarded the diplomas. Continuing the tradition of giving an item to the principal upon receiving a diploma, each class member gave Lambert a book.

Class presidents Blake Conrad and Margaret Duplessis gave the farewell, telling the grads, "wherever you go, remember the journey started here."

Dean of Students Charles Raymond closed the commencement, giving his traditional advice for the graduates to be safe that evening, and as they move on with their lives.

Whitman Memorial Library

The date has been set for the Summer Story Hour at Whitman Memorial Library in Bryant Pond.

Valerie Billings and Sheryl Morgan will be offering stories and crafts for ages 4 and up beginning Tuesday, June 20, from 10 to 11 a.m. We have lots of good books and the ladies are good with crafts, so come and participate. This program will be held every Tuesday, except for the week of July 4, until early to mid August. We will plan to end the sessions with a special guest program that will be open to the public as well as the story hour children.

Norway Public Library

"Why Remember Shepherds" is the title of a talk to be given by Joy Moll at Norway Library on Thursday, June 22, at 7 p.m.

Moll is the author of the recently published book, "Ties to a Maine Lake: Farmers, Vacationers, and the Town of Norway," which recounts the history of Shepherds Camps and the land on Crockett Ridge from which it developed.

In her talk she will focus on the impact that the Shepherd family and the camps have had on the town of Norway including economic, civic, social, environmental and literary.

Following the talk the public is invited to share memories of Shepard's Camps and related Norway and Lake history. Books will be available for sale and Joy will also be available to sign them.

During the month of June, there is a display in the library's glass case of memorabilia of Shepard's Camps and the public is invited to contribute pictures and items related to the camps. Refreshments on the 22nd will include apple pie and walnut pudding which were on the restaurant menu at Shepard's. For further information call the Norway Library at 743-5309.

Roxbury ATV Riders

The ride to Madrid originally scheduled for June 17 has been rescheduled to June 25.

The ride will leave from the Roxbury ATV Riders Park & Ride around 9 a.m.

Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

The 2006 Bethel Historical Society House Tour and Luncheon will be held on Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Nine houses ranging from the early 19th to the 21st centuries will be open to the public during this time. The $20 ticket will entitle the bearer to visit the houses listed on the ticket and partake of a light lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. during the tour day at the society's Dr. Moses Mason House Meeting Room.

The houses open to the public during the two days of the tour include the Dr. Moses Mason House (1813), Broad Street, which features furnishings from the period of Dr. and Mrs. Mason's life and the famed Rufus Porter Murals. The John Hastings House, also on Broad Street, dating from 1821 has been home to four generations of descendants of the original owner and today reflects a "time warp" for about 1900. The Gould House on Broad Street dates back to 1979 and has been extensively renovated recently to accommodate a future bed and breakfast operation.

The Settle House on Paradise Road was built in the 1870s and has been renovated in recent years. The Haberman House on Paradise Road designed by Bethel architect Stuart Crocker blends nostalgic characteristics with contemporary building elements. The Todd House also on Paradise Road was built in 2000. Its plans originated from a magazine, but was modified to suit the owners by architect James May.

The Schwarz House on Ridge Road (off Paradise) boasts a colonial style and theme throughout with an eclectic decorating style. The Boudreau House just off Merriman Road was designed by architect Rob Whitten for Gordon and Mary Gillies in 1987. It is of contemporary design with a guest house which was recently given an award by Down East magazine for the "Best Guest House" in Maine. The Perry "Barn House" on Merriman Road in the Sunset Hill development contains the framework of an "English Barn" which originally stood near the Ball Bartlett Tavern (ca. 1825) at Bear's Corner in East Bethel. Re-erected on this site in 2005, the house reflects the balance of the old barn's architecture and craftsmanship with the needs of modern living.

Tickets will be on sale both days at the society's O'Neill Robinson House.

Western Maine University and Community College Center

The summer schedule at Western Maine University and Community College Center continues in July with more than 50 courses available from Maine's public universities. Courses start on July 3, July 5, and July 10 with sessions running from five to six weeks.

Courses abound in a range of subject areas, offering opportunities for educators, healthcare and social services providers, business and nonprofit administrators, childcare workers and others to improve skills or earn credentials.

People who simply wish to take a course or two for personal enrichment can choose from courses in writing, literature, history, psychology, political science and more.

Located on 232 Main Street, Western Maine University Community College Center offers local access to the courses and programs of Maine's seven public universities. Students may choose from courses delivered onsite, online, or via interactive television (ITV) and videoconference. Each semester, WMUCC offers hundreds of courses leading to 41 university degrees and certificates. ITV and online courses also are available in Telstar Regional High School in Bethel.

In addition to university courses, Western Maine University and Community College Center provides personalized support for students, particularly to those beginning college for the first time. Advisors help students apply for financial aid, gain admission to degree programs, register for classes, order textbooks, and much more.

Registration for July sessions is open and ongoing. Please contact Western Maine University and Community College Center at 743-9322 for more information.

Annual Drinking Water Quality Report for 2005 BETHEL WATER DISTRICT

Bethel, ME
PWSID ME0090160

We're pleased to present to you our Annual Drinking Water Quality Report. This report, a requirement of the 1996 amendments to the Safe Drinking Water Act, is designed to inform you about the quality of your water and services we deliver to you every day. Our constant goal is to provide you with a safe and dependable supply of drinking water. We want you to understand the efforts we make to continually improve the water treatment process and protect our water resources. We are committed to ensuring the quality of your water.

WATER SOURCE
Due to exceptional water quality our water source, Chapman Brook, has a waiver to filtration. We screen the water twice before treating it with chlorine to protect from possible bacterial contaminants and add fluoride to promote dental health. It is then gravity fed to our 1,313 customers through 525 service connections. We own 2,300 acres surrounding the source, we have developed and implemented a Watershed Control which is designed to prevent contamination of our source.

SOURCE WATER ASSESSMENT
The sources of drinking water include rivers, lakes, ponds, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and radioactive material and can pick up substances resulting from human or animal activity. The Maine Drinking Water Program (DWAP) has evaluated all public water supplies as part of the Source Water Assessment Program (SWAP). The assessments included geology, hydrology, land uses, water testing information, and the extent of land ownership or protection by local ordinance to see how likely our drinking water source is to be contaminated by available at public water suppliers, town offices, and the DWAP. For more information about the SWAP, please contact the DWAP at telephone 287-2070.

Annual Drinking Water Quality Report for 2005 WEST BETHEL WATER SYSTEM

Bethel, ME
PWSID ME0090161

We're pleased to present to you our Annual Drinking Water Quality Report. This report, a requirement of the 1996 amendments to the Safe Drinking Water Act, is designed to inform you about the quality of your water and services we deliver to you every day. Our constant goal is to provide you with a safe and dependable supply of drinking water. We want you to understand the efforts we make to continually improve the water treatment process and protect our water resources. We are committed to ensuring the quality of your water.

WATER SOURCE
Our water comes from two wells located in West Bethel. These two wells, which require no treatment, serve 125 people through 50 service connections.

SOURCE WATER ASSESSMENT
The sources of drinking water include rivers, lakes, ponds, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and radioactive material and can pick up substances resulting from human or animal activity. For more information about the SWAP, please contact the DWAP at telephone 287-2070.

\[No test results were required for a given contaminant in 2004, the law requires that the most recent test results be included here. No test results over 5 years old are allowed, however. Some or all of the following contaminants were tested for as regulated by law. Other elements are also tested for which do not require reporting, as they do not pose a potential health risk.]*

Action Level: The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL): The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLG as feasible.
Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG): The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs are set as a goal for protection.
Variances, Exemptions, and Waivers: State of EPA permission not to meet an MCL, a treatment technique or test for a given contaminant under certain conditions.
Treatment Technique (TT): A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water (e.g. treatment technique for lead is filtration).
Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU): nephelometric turbidity unit is a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity in excess of 5 NTU is just not aesthetically pleasing.
Running Annual Average (RAA): The average of all monthly or quarterly samples for the last year at all sample locations.
N/A: not applicable.

Units:
Parts per million (ppm) or Milligrams per liter (mg/L). One part per million corresponds to one minute in two years or a single penny in $10,000.
Parts per billion (ppb) or Micrograms per liter (µg/L). One part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000.
Picoles per liter (pCi/L): A measure of the radioactivity in water.

Notes:
*Total Coliform Bacteria: Reported as the highest monthly number of positive samples, for water systems that take < 40 samples per month.
Turbidity: Turbidity is a measure of cloudiness or suspended solid matter (silt). Excessive turbidity levels can cause problems with water distribution. 0.2 NTU was the single highest measure of turbidity for the last year. 100% of the samples taken were below 1.4 NTU for slow sand filtration media. Therefore, your finished drinking water is clear and safe to drink.
Gross Alpha: Action level over 15 pCi/L requires testing for Radium. Action level over 15 pCi/L requires testing for Radium and Uranium.
Lead/Copper: Action levels are measured at consumer's tap. 90% of the tests must be equal to or below the action level.
Fluoride: Fluoride levels must be maintained between 1-2 ppm, for those water systems that fluoridate the water.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION
All sources of drinking water are subject to potential contamination by constituents that are naturally occurring or are man-made. Those constituents can be microbes, organic or inorganic chemicals, or radioactive materials. All drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. Contaminants that may be present in source water include:
Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may cause illness and death in some cases.
Inorganic chemicals, such as radon, which can be naturally occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic water discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.
Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.
Organic chemicals, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production and can also come from gas stations, urban runoff, and septic systems. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 1-800-426-4791.
MCLs are set at very stringent levels. To understand the possible health effects described for many regulated constituents, a person would have to drink 2 liters of water every day at the MCL level for a lifetime to have a one-in-one-thousand chance of having the described health effect.

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).
We, at Bethel Water District, work around the clock to provide top quality water to every tap. We ask that all our customers help us protect our water sources, which are the heart of our community, our way of life, and our children's future. Please contact us with any questions.

Reny's, the Musical

While the name "Reny's" may not have the international recognition of Freeport's L.L. Bean, true aficionados of shopping in Maine will insist that there is no place quite like the unassuming chain of department stores called Reny's. With thirteen stores anchoring smalltown shopping districts from Pittsfield to Bridgton and Farmington to Ellsworth, Reny's is the modern-day equivalent of the old-time general merchandiser.

"Reny's, the Musical," is more than just a love letter to one of the Pine Tree State's favorite retailers, it is also a lighthearted satire about an epic struggle between a downtown business and big, box-store Goliath, and a delightfully fresh comics end-up about life in small town Maine.

"Reny's, the Musical" will be presented at Deertrees Theatre on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, June 21, 22, 23, and 24 at 8 p.m. There will also be 2 p.m. matinees on Saturday and Sunday, June 24 and 25. Tickets are available through the theatre's Box Office at 207.583.6747, in Bridgton at the Cool Moose and Renys Department Store, the Country Sleigh in Naples, the FareShare Co-op in Norway, and Books & Things in Bethel.

6747, at Cool Moose and Reny's Department Store, Bridgton; Country Sleigh in Naples; Fare Share Co-op in Norway; and Books N Things, Bethel.

Thursday, June 22

7 p.m. — "Why Remember Shepherds," title of a talk to be given by Joy Moll, author of "Ties to a Maine Lake: Farmers, Vacationers, and the Town of Norway," which recounts the history of Shepherd's Camps and the land on Crockett Ridge from which it developed, at the Norway Public Library. Books will be available for sale. Refreshments will be walnut pudding and apple pie, items served at Shepherd's Camps. FMI: 743-5309.

7 p.m. — The Mollycokett Chorus of Sweet Adelines International will present a program of songs in four-part a capella (unaccompanied) harmony at the Brick Church in Lovell. A group of the songs will honor their namesake, Molly Ockett, the Abnaki Indian wise woman who is famous in this area of Western Maine. Show tunes, old favorites, love songs, and patriotic selections round out the program. $10 donation at door. FMI: contact Mollycokett Chorus Director, Pat Fleck (647-5005), Roberta Chandler, Brick Church Program Committee (925-2792) or Mimi Wetzel, Mollycokett Publicity Committee (627-4939).

June 22 and 23

It's always wise to call ahead

Listings in The Citizen's weekly Community Calendar are compiled from a wide variety of sources. While we do our utmost to ensure the reliability of the information presented here, we recognize that when dealing with such a large volume of material, some inaccuracies will occasionally creep in. And in other cases, a sponsoring organization's plans may change between the time The Citizen is printed and the event is held. Accordingly, we strongly urge our readers to call ahead to verify the details of any event they plan to attend. Doing so will greatly reduce the chance of disappointment or needless inconvenience.

High School Varsity Softball

Telstar 1, Sacopee Valley 0; June 13—Telstar's Jessie Farrington threw a no-hitter as the Rebels won the Western Class C championship, held at St. Joseph's College. Jillian Kimball had two hits. Third baseman Stephanie Tripp and left fielder Abby Hutchins made key plays to keep Sacopee hitters off the bases. Tiffany Jordan scored the game's only run after she drew a walk and then made it safely home on an infield error.

Telstar 10, Dirigo 2; June 12—Telstar's Jessie Farrington threw a two-hitter in a Western Class C semifinal playoff at Telstar. The Rebels scored six of their runs on hit batters, walks or wild pitches.

Telstar 12, St. Dom's 6; June 9—Telstar's Kayla Mills and Abby Hutchins each had two hits in a Western Class C quarterfinal playoff at Telstar. Jillian Kimball was the winning pitcher. Liz Rosenberg had a double and threw out three baserunners.

High School Boys' Track

Class C State Championships: Telstar placed 11th of 32 teams. The Rebels' Charles Haines won the individual championship in the discus with a toss of 136 feet, six inches. Other individual results: 100m: 6. Frankie Del Duca 11.95. 4x100m relay: 7. Telstar 48.87. Javelin: 6. Haines 136-0.

High School Girls' Track

Class C State Championships: Telstar placed 11th of 32 teams. Individual results: 100m: 3. Jen DeNormandie 13.23. 200m: 3. DeNormandie 27.06. 3,200m: 4. Brienne Bailey 13:01.40.

TMS Softball

Telstar 15, Tripp 12; June 6—The TMS varsity defeated a pesky Tripp team on the road. The team collected a season high 20 walks, and hits by Lindsay James, T.J. Cowin, Tasha Farnum, Felicia Dumont, Hannah Morin, Emma Davis, and Carin Donachie. Kayla Merrill and Nicena Walker combined for the win on the mound allowing six hits, eight walks, and nine strikeouts. Some outstanding defense played, especially by Sam Largess and Carin Donachie, throwing four different players out trying to steal third base.

TELSTAR PITCHER Jessie Farrington, center, is hugged by catcher Liz Rosenberg and congratulated by first baseman Chelsea Cozzolino after striking out a Sacopee Valley batter to end Tuesday night's game. Farrington pitched a no-hitter to lead the Rebels to the Western Class C Championship, played at St. Joseph's College in Standish. Inset, third baseman Stephanie Tripp makes a throw to first base. She had several putouts during the contest. Undeclared Telstar will face Central High School, 18-1, on Saturday in Standish for the state championship.

Remember Me

Remember me when flowers bloom early in the spring
Remember me on sunny days in the fun that summer brings
Remember me in the fall as you walk through the leaves of gold
And in the wintertime - remember me in the stories that are told.
But most of all remember each day - right from the start
I will be forever near, for I live within your heart.

Love,
Bette & Family

in the housekeeping department and laundry room at the Rumford Hospital.

She was a long-standing member of the Pythian Sisters and master of the Pomona Grange in Rumford Center. She was very involved with community benefits and loved to crochet. She dedicated her whole life to her family and children.

RALPH K. TAYLOR

Ralph K. Taylor, 83, of Lewiston, died peacefully on Saturday, June 10, 2006 at the Androscoggin Home Care and Hospice House in Auburn, after a lingering illness.

He was born in Lewiston on Aug. 19, 1922, the son of Charles and Mary (Casey) Taylor. Ralph was a 1940 graduate of Edward Little High School.

He served in the 566th Signal Co. in World War II from 1943 to 1946. His passion and talent for playing the trumpet afforded him the opportunity to play with many area big bands as well as for the Army Dance Band in Austria after the war had ended in Germany.

He retired in 1988 after 43 years as a typesetter for the Lewiston Sun Journal.

His retirement years were full and rewarding. Ralph realized his dream of owning a motorcycle and became an avid motorcyclist traveling through New England and Canada with the Mid-Maine Motorcycle Club, the Roadrunners and the Retreads (an over-50 biking club). He also enjoyed many summers as a seasonal camper at the Poland Spring Campground. His basement woodworking shop also kept him busy making toys for relatives, friend and children in need.

Ralph's commitment to veterans in need was strong, as evidenced by his recent commendation for more than 7,000 hours of volunteer service at the V.A. Hospital in Togus and his service as a VAVS deputy at the Togus VA for the American Legion. He was a member of the Smith-Tobey American Legion Post 21 in Bath and was a life member of the DAV.

Ralph will be sadly missed by his loving wife, Marilyn (Morris) Taylor of Lewiston; daughter, Deborah Taylor and partner Lou of Portland; stepdaughter, Valeri Maloney and her husband Joe of Auburn; stepsons, Clayton Morris and his wife Gail of Plattsburgh, N.Y., Michael Morris and his wife Pierrette of Auburn, and Gregory Morris and his wife Marina of Fernley, Nev.; a brother, Phillip Taylor and his wife Suzanne of Bethel; nine grandchildren; two precious great-grandchildren, Austin and Emily Redman; and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents; and his sister, Jean Crosskill.

In the later stages of his illness, he so enjoyed dining out and was well known for saying to the wait staff, after receiving great service, "I think I'll keep you another week." His family thanks all those who helped bring a smile to Ralph's face as his health was failing.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to the Androscoggin Home Care and Hospice team, especially nurse Karen Bourgoin, for making such a difference in the quality of his last week of life.

A Memorial Service celebrating his life was held at American Legion Smith-Tobey Post No. 21, Bath, on Tuesday, June 13. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Coffee Fund, VAVS Togus, 1 VA Center, Togus, ME 04330.

SCOTT D. LEGERE

Scott D. Legere, 27, of Hebron, died Friday, June 9, 2006 from complications due to a car accident.

He was born on Oct. 27, 1976, to his mother Mary L. (Legere) King. He was raised by his grandparents, Bradford and Phyllis Kimball. He attended schools in the Oxford Hills and Windham areas.

He leaves behind a 19-month-old son, Seth Tyler Johnson, of Fairfield; his companion, Pam Gould of Auburn; his mother, Mary L. King of New York; his father who raised him, Bradford Kimball of Norway; three sisters, Lorie O'Neil of West Paris, Angela Charest of Oxford, and Melissa Pierce of Kentucky; many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews; and his dog, Tucker. He was predeceased by the mother who raised him, Phyllis Kimball, on Nov. 20, 2005.

Scott will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He touched many lives during his life and will never be forgotten.

A graveside service will be held at 3 p.m. Friday, June 16, at Riverside Annex Cemetery in South Paris. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Scott Legere Memorial Fund at Norway Savings Bank.

BARBY MASON RICE

Barby Mason Rice, 30, of Woodstock, died at her residence June 13, 2006.

She was born in Brunswick on Oct. 23, 1975, the daughter of Donald J. and Karina (Davidson) Mason Jr and was educated in local schools. She recently graduated with honors from truck driving school at Oxford Hills Adult Education.

Barby enjoyed fishing, camping and four-wheeling and was especially fond of the time she spent with her two children.

She is survived by her maternal grandparents, Ethel and Clifford Young of Vermont; her paternal grandmother, Virginia E. Mason of Woodstock; her parents of Woodstock; husband, Todd Rice and their children Brodi Mason Rice and Sydni Love Rice of Woodstock; and one sister, Becky Mason of Norway.

Visiting hours will be held at the home of Becky Mason, 10 Elm Street, Norway, on Friday evening, June 16, from 6 to 8 p.m. Private graveside services will be held at a later date. Memorials in Barby's name may be made to the Brodi and Sydni Rice Educational Fund, c/o Norway Savings Bank, P.O. Box 347, Norway, ME.
